46 AF Pilots Trained in Hot New Jet

Forty-six U.S. Air Force pilots have completed extensive pilot ground school training on the supersonic T-38 Talon jet trainer at Northrop's Norair Division here.

Division here,
The pilots, assigned from Air Training Command, Air
Research and Development Command, Tactical Air Command and Office of the Inspector General, comprise the initial cadre for operational phase-in of the T-38.

phase-in of the T-38.

In the Norair - conducted training program, the pilots were completely familiarized with the design, mission and operation of the twin-jet Talon, scheduled to replace the T-33 in the Air Force's space age training program. training program.

Upon return to their respective bases, the pilots will spearhead the many preparations re-quired for operational phase-in of the Talon. Randolph AFB, Texas, is the first ATC base scheduled to receive the opera-
